

How To Feel(fill) The Void “Life”

“Photos” - The High Region

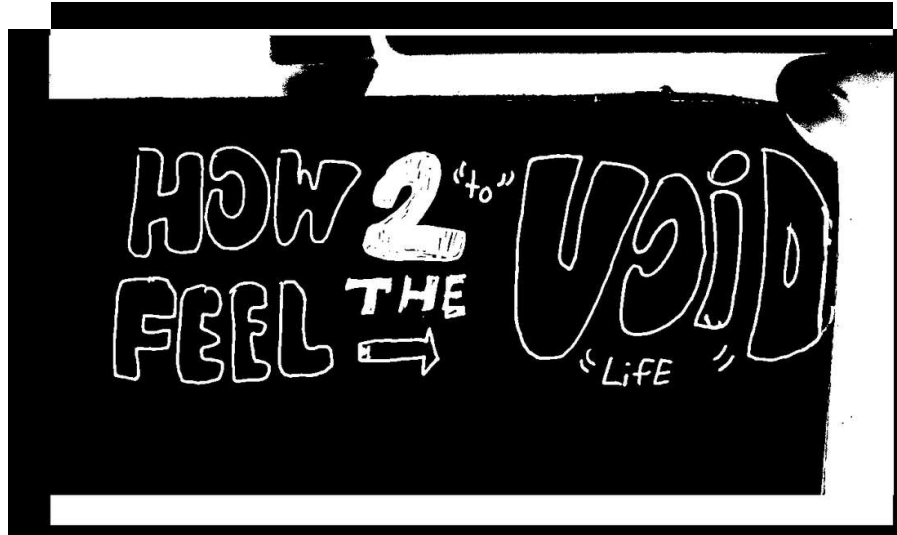

“Written & Drawn” - Jasilyn A. Anderson

Words have weight.

Because people usually voice what they believe.

Beliefs: structure our existence.

Emotions: push us to make the moves we make.

"Photos" - The High Region

PART 1: CHOICES

IF YOU'RE NOT MAKING THE CHOICE TO LEAVE YOUR' CURRENT SITUATION, GUESS WHAT, YOU'RE CHOOSING NOT TO REACH YOUR DREAMS (AKA DESIRES)

BURNING

NOTHING is HARD or EASY.

THERE ARE ONLY DEGREES OF KNOWING. EVERYTHING WE KNOW IS SOMETHING WE DIDN'T BEFORE.

THINGS BECOME EASIER BY DOING THEM MORE. THATS WHAT A HABIT IS.

HABITS - BECOME AUTOMATIC ONCE THEY'RE REPEATED ENOUGH.

DESIREs
(DESIREs)

DREAMS

DON'T CHANGE THEMSELVES

EVERYTHING IS A DECISION.

"Reflection"

① THE THING IS. IF YOU'RE NOT ACTIVELY CREATING WHAT YOU WANT. YOU'RE PASSIVELY CREATING WHAT YOU DONT WANT.

② YOU ARE IN CONTROL OF YOU,
YOUR CHOICES,
YOUR REACTIONS.

NO ONE ELSE CAN CHANGE HOW

YOU LIVE THIS LIFE, UNLESS

YOU ALLOW THEM.

ALL THIS TIES BACK to 1 THING. KNOW YOURSELF. TAP INTO YOUR INNER SELF. EXTERNAL VALIDATION ISN'T NEEDED WHEN YOU KNOW WHO YOU ARE & WHERE YOU'RE GOING.

BECAUSE ONCE YOU MAKE UP YOUR MIND. IT BECOMES REAL, BUT THAT REQUIRES BELIEVING YOU ACTUALLY HAVE THE POWER to CREATE IT.

DOUBT CREATES → TOO.

ONE POSITIVE THOUGHT CAN BE CANCELED OUT BY FIVE NEGATIVE ONES.

REMEMBER, CREATION HAPPENS ACTIVELY or PASSIVELY.

EITHER WAY, YOUR THOUGHTS CREATE SO STEER THEM IN THE RIGHT → DIRECTION.

SOME CALL THIS

MANIFESTATION

yes
3 NO.

THE DIFFERENCE is, YOU DONT HAVE to CHANT or AFFIRM. OVER & OVER.

IF YOU ALREADY KNOW IT 2 BE TRUE.

YOU can ONLY HAVE WHAT 'U' HAVE.

TIME IS MADE UP.

IN THIS PHYSICAL REALM, its HOW WE PLAN & ORGANIZE, BUT IN TRUTH,
the PAST, PRESENT, & FUTURE

COEXIST. WHAT WILL BE ALREADY IS. WHAT HAPPENED ALREADY IS, & NOW ALREADY IS.

THE

FOCUSES ON SOCIETY,
THE ECONOMY, THE PLANET,

BUT

IS FLIPPED,

PLANET

1ST

ONE.

Part 2:

NOTHING OF CIVILIZATION

“Action”

Nothing matters unless you make it matter.
So, what matters to you?

Funny how we want results without doing anything, dream of being fit, of creating,
of having more,
but we don't take the steps.

Just imagining it isn't enough,
so nothing changes.
Action destroys doubt.

you are, we are, I am.

Most people think the steps will be hard,
so they make them hard.
You think it's easy, and it will flow.

Your mind shapes the path.

And the action reinforces that path.

When you say you can't have something,
you put it on a pedestal.
It becomes out of reach.

A better way:

I don't do that.

I could, I just choose not to.

CREATE

MOMENTS

TODAY

MAGICAL.

NO WAITING ON FUTURISTIC ACTS

Thinking it's impossible creates barriers,
thinking it's possible opens doors.

Peace of mind looks different for everyone.

For some, it's fully living off passion and art.

For others, it's structure, stability, separation.

There is no right or wrong way to be.

I realized something important:
I am already the artist I was meant to be.

There's no rush,
no timeline,
no imaginary finish line.

I create because it brings me joy, not because it has to prove anything.

Sharing is a choice,
it has impact,
even when it's not intentional.

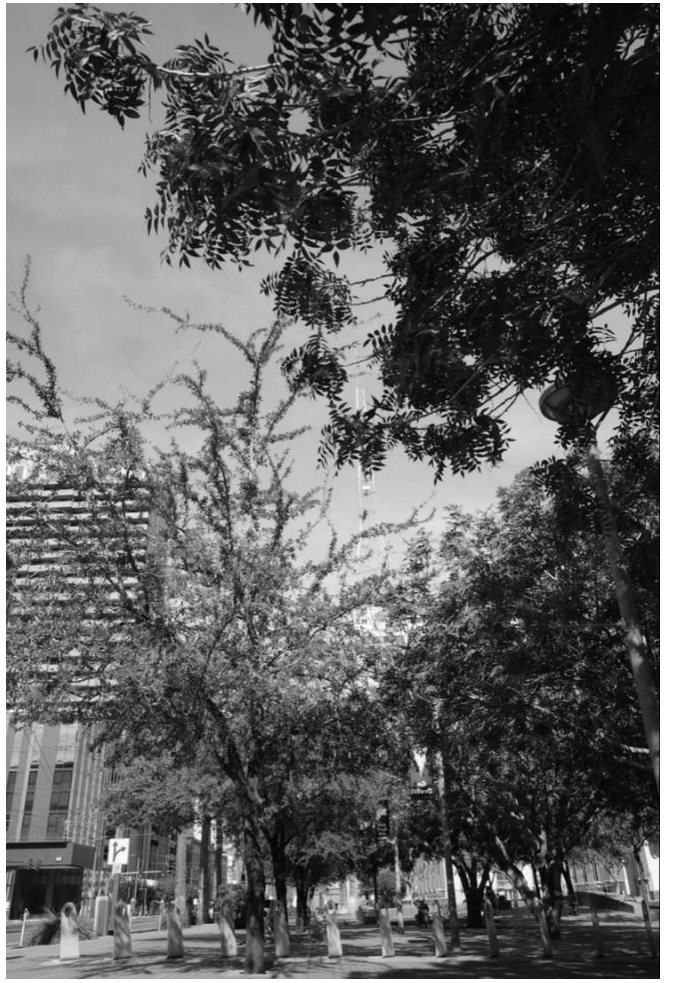

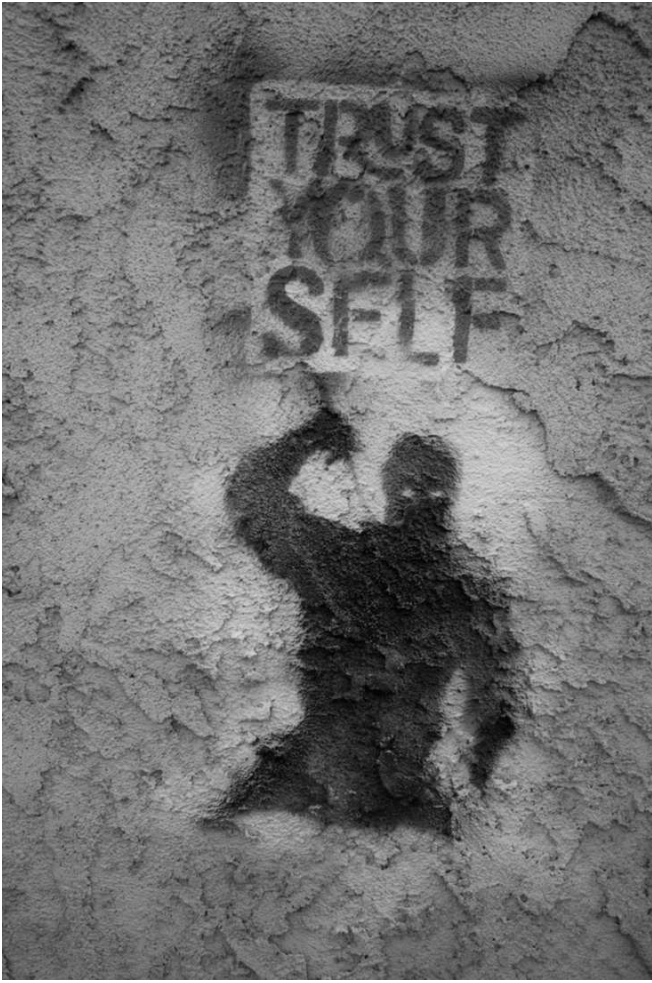

I like my day job. Easy money.
Weekly paychecks. Essentials covered. Savings. Peace.

I enjoy the separation, and not having art be the means of money, currently.

I create because I want to.

It's a way to discover more of who I am.

Life is a journey, I'm Appreciating the scenery.
Happiness is contentment.
This is my current path:
doing things simply for enjoyment.
Wherever your attention goes,
energy flows.
Focus on the positive, and that becomes your reality.

Making art and living my day-to-day feels different now that I'm conscious of where I put my attention.

Wanting more is fine.

There's always something better, but satisfaction starts with loving what's yours.

Abundance is your Birthright,
your natural state.
Don't ever forget that.

Part 3

“ Connection ”

Many people connect through complaining and trauma bonding.

Small talk is usually just shared dissatisfaction.

I never realized how common it was until I stopped.

Judging others is a pastime.

I used to participate, but now that I don't, life is lighter.

If that sounds like a lie, trust me, it's not.

There is no need to judge someone else's experience. It's their view.

I can share mine; maybe it informs or sheds light.

If not, that's fine too.

People change only if they want to. You can't change people.

Accepting them as they are is all you can do, even if you don't fully comprehend why.

Everyone moves through the world differently.

We all process life in our own way.

Sometimes I try to understand.

Sometimes things aren't for me, so I don't engage.

I know who I am. I aim for clarity and honesty.

If I speak my truth and others can't do the same, I've done my part. I move forward.

Just because something is normalized doesn't mean it's right.

Question it. Make your own path.

Once, everyone believed the sun circled the earth.

Then someone asked: what if that's not true?

Everything shifted.

Ideas that seemed impossible became the foundation for new understanding.

Peer pressure is common, and following the crowd requires no critical thinking.

It's a passive existence.

Predetermined, and mostly deemed acceptable.

Authenticity comes from your individual choices.

We are all inspired by different things in the world, but the combos are what make it unique.

Most people are just waiting for their turn to speak, breaking that pattern is refreshing in a world when one is waiting to be heard.

Curiosity is magnetic.

It is noticeable when you care about what they see, feel, or do.

Not flattery. Not kissing up. Genuine interest.

Seeing others as humans puts you on the same playing field. There is nothing to fear.

Be present in the moment.

If they're not your people, you move on.

If they are, you connect by being yourself.

Focus on the good. Many focus on what's wrong, and rarely point out effort. I encourage you to be the change.

Acknowledge it. Say it out loud.

It matters. We only get one life.

Don't wait for things to be interesting

Generate interest.

Have fun. Experience all the ways we connect.

Do what brings you joy, not just what makes others feel safe.

Perform for no one.

Responsibility isn't always something you need to be indebted to forever. You can pay it off and be free.

Connect to everything, attach to nothing.
Essentially the difference between a handshake and a handcuff.

Attachment is trying to own or control a moment, making your happiness a hostage.

Live your truth.

Lying to yourself is a cage. Performing that lie for others is the opposite of living.

Good conversation is simple:

Listen. Pay attention. Reflect. Ask.

When they do the same, you realize we are reflections of one another after all.

Go beyond the surface. Skip the defaults like age or job titles.

You can ask what moves them, let the conversation take shape on its own.

Seeking more is how we expand. Without the drive to know, we stagnate.

Intelligence is trying, failing, and iterating.

That becomes knowledge.

Even the machines we create learn this way.

Trial and error. It's how we are wired.

We consume too much.

We are what we take in.

Convenience comes at a cost.

People enjoy feeling like they earn something rather than just being handed a reward, most of the time.

When you take that away, people can feel unfulfilled.

For example: Sitting in an Uber with a driver who wants to talk when you want silence.

Convenience makes us choose a Waymo.

No eye contact. No discomfort. No exchange at all.

Online is one world, full of dopamine and performance.

Real life is another.

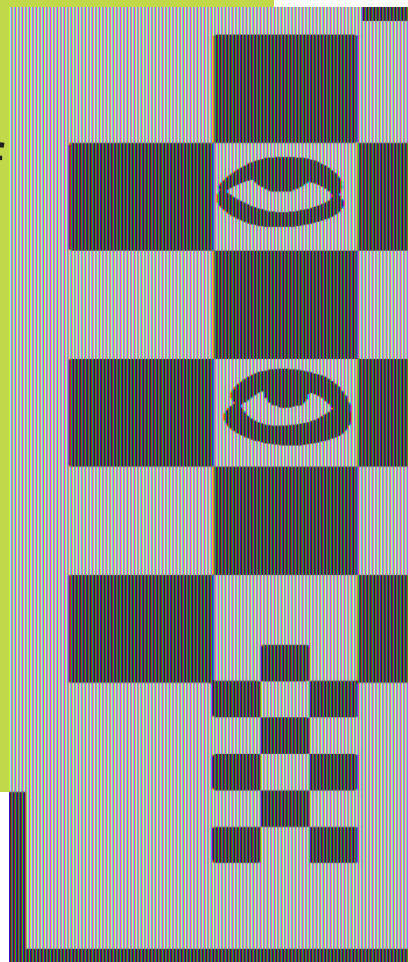

Many people feel lonely there, not because they lack connection, but because it requires effort.

They create too little.

They watch what others build instead of participating.

We are here to expand the universe.

It's called co-creating for a reason.

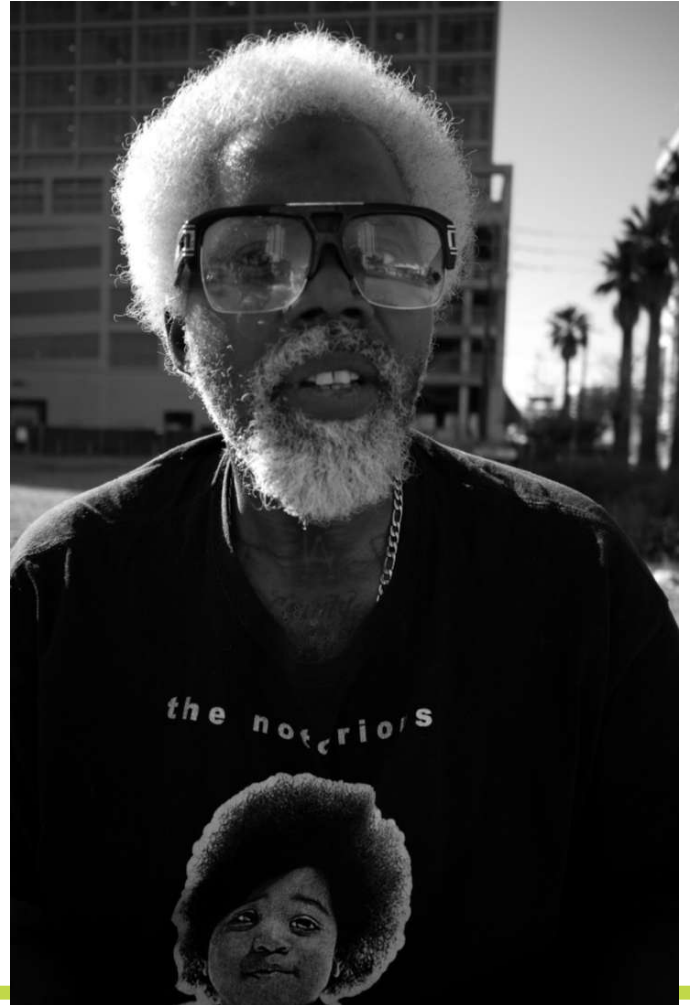

Put the phone down. Pause the streaming.

Make something.

Creating is what we were born to do.

It doesn't have to be "art."
It can be anything you want to bring into the physical world. We are all creators.
It's how we grow, find joy,
and share love, in this life,
so make it count.

No one is holding you back but yourself.

Own that.

Do something about it.

The End:
